OPEN MIC: ASK THE ROOM

- ▶ Come up to the mic
- ▶ Ask one question
- ▶ The room answers

QUESTION 1 · CODE REVIEW

Most of the PRs at my company are written by agents, but a human still reviews every one. Review is now the bottleneck. What are you doing about it?

JUST WALKED IN? GRAB A SEAT

OPEN MIC: ASK THE ROOM

People are taking turns asking the room how their teams handle agentic coding.

1

Someone asks a question at the mic

2

Anyone answers: raise your hand and share what works

3

Got a question? Line up at the mic

LEVEL 3 · BOSS LEVEL

TWO WINS & A REGRET

1

Come up

Take the mic with three decisions your team made about agentic coding.

2

Share

Two worked. One backfired. Don't say which.

3

Guess

The room raises hands for the one they think is the regret.

4

Reveal

Say why it backfired and what you'd do instead.

LEVEL 3 · DEMO MODE

WATCH ME PLAY FIRST

A

We enabled the GitHub merge queue

B

We granted Claude access to our read replica

C

We gave our product managers Claude access to ask questions

Hands up: which one is the regret?

LEVEL 3 · PLAYER 2 PRESS START

YOUR TURN

Come up to the mic. Three decisions, two wins and one regret. The room guesses which one backfired.
